County Expense Cut To Be Eyed

Spending in county offices must be realigned, County Judge Woody Pond said this week as he awaited a report from the county auditor on expenses for the past few years.

Pond said taxes should not be raised to make up a $100,000 deficit in the 1973 budget which county commissioners gave initial approval to on Monday. The budget, while it presents a balanced appearance due to the use of surplus to make up the deficit, calls for expenditure of $1,373,000 and income of $1,199,000. It is at least the third year in a row the commissioners have okayed a budget the income of which is less than the expenditure.

"We're going to have to realign our spending and look into the matter of collection," Pond said in an interview this week.

He said commissioners lowered the tax rate three years ago and may now be reaping the whirlwind of that action.

"I don't want to raise taxes," he said. "We just have to realign spending."

Pond said that realignment might encompass the elimination of some services now provided by the county.

He said he will urge that commissioners study the budget to reduce expenditures.

In past years, commissioners have passed deficit budgets, but have not discussed how to solve that problem in open meetings.

Budget hearing on the $1.3 million budget will be at 2:30 p.m. Monday in commissioners' courtroom.

The basically deficit budget is saved only through nearly $400,000 surplus which will be diminished next year to help make up the income not available to meet the expenditures anticipated.

The creation of another deficit budget apparently is causing concern among commissioners.

Their reaction during regular session Monday was one of criticism after County Auditor

Betty Hodges pointed out that the budget for the next fiscal year shows disbursements totalling $174,000 more than income.

She noted that while a surplus of $390,000 is anticipated from the 1973 budget, that surplus will be diminished to $216,000 during 1974 to make up for the lost income.

"We're going to have to cut down," Judge Woody Pond said for the second straight year.

"I don't see how we can stand to go on like this," Commissioner Jim Fletcher said. He noted that to make up for the deficit in the county's general fund, a bookkeeping loan of $50,000 is called for in the 1974 budget from the road and bridge fund.

"In future years we're going to have to cut expenses or raise taxes," warned Commissioner

Paul Lindsey. "And, I hate to think about raising taxes. I think we should start thinking about a balanced budget. Eventually, we're going to have to do something better."

Mrs. Hodges noted that the county has always had a considerable surplus, but that the surplus has been in the road and bridge fund, which cannot be (See CUTS, page 2)

Anxious Board Will Open Bids For $1.6 Million Hospital Today

An anxious board of directors of the South Randall County Hospital District will open bids for a proposed 50-bed hospital for Canyon at 2 p.m. today, but it may be a month before they award a contract.

Administrator Ray Grimes said apparently there is much interest in the hospital construction project, a project estimated to cost about $1.6 million.

He said five sets of specifications have been given out to Amarillo construction firms and that firms in other cities have also eyed the specifications.

Letting of bids was authorized by the board last month after a three-year struggle to find financing and public support for the hospital to replace 40-year-old Neblett Memorial Hospital.

Grimes said although bids will be opened today, it will take at least 30 days for the board's architect, Bill O'Connell of Austin, to review the massive bids and calculate the best offer.

The hospital board has included a handful of options in the specifications, options which can be eliminated or utilized according to cost.

Board members expect a general idea of the cost today though.

They've already received some pessimistic reports from O'Connell who has noted that the $1.6 million figure may be hard to meet under today's inflation and high prices for construction products.

But, Grimes said construction firms seem to be turning in favorable bids. He noted that the bids for a similar hospital submitted last week were more than acceptable to that hospital district.

Whenever board members decide which bid is the best, they will also face a decision on how to finance at least half the project.

Currently, the board has $800,000 in tax bonds and whatever tax monies have been collected for the year. They must find at least another $800,000.

Two avenues are being eyed to obtain the needed financing. One is a guaranteed loan by the federal government. Another is the issuance of revenue bonds.

The federal government has agreed to guarantee a loan of not more than $1.1 million, so board members have about $300,000 leeway in that avenue.

Grimes has said a primary factor in considering which avenue (See BIDS, page 2)

CHS Eagles Begin Tough AAAA Schedule Against Borger Fri.

There's no resting on laurels in the Canyon Eagle camp this week.

The Eagles of Coach Ron Mills, who blasted Spearman's Lynx last Friday night in a season opener win of 33-6, are working hard in afternoon drills this week to prepare for the beginning of a tough schedule against AAAA opponents.

The first of those AAAA opponents is Borger's Bulldogs, who the Eagles meet at 7:30 p.m. Friday at Borger.

Nevertheless, Mills is not against reflecting on the sweet Eagle victory over Spearman last weekend.

"Friday night we felt pretty good," Mills said with a smile. "We felt we'd played well. But, after looking at the film we could see lots of mistakes and things to improve on before we can defeat a team like Borger."

Mills said most of the mistakes made were ones of technique.

"The kids were fired up as much and played as hard as you could ask them to," Mills said.

Some of the good things which Mills saw after reviewing the game film were the efforts by the Eagle defensive backs to make pass completions virtually impossible for the Lynx quarterback.

"We didn't have a receiver behind us and we're proud of that," he said.

Mills cited the defense for a good game, particularly Andy and Tom Grimes, Bob Counsellor and Kelly Forehand.

Of the offense, Mills said the original game plan had not called for as many end sweeps as the Eagles played.

The sweep proved to be the forte of Gary Bednorz, a 155-pound senior tailback, who amassed 114 yards in the game to lead Eagle runners.

Mills cited Bednorz, Counsellor and Terry Slagle for their efforts on offense.

Another plus which resulted from the Spearman game was the fact that every player played a portion of the game.

"We played everybody by the last of the third quarter," Mills said. "It sure helped team morale."

Looking to this Friday's outing against the Bulldogs, Mills said Borger has speed on offense and defense and although the linemen aren't big, they're quick.

"They've got another (Waiter) Hibbler — Sylvester Darvin," Mills said. "He plays defensive down man and he's the best we've seen in a long time."

Mills said the player caused most of Perryton's fumbles in that team's outing against Borger last weekend.

In their offensive backfield, the Bulldogs also have good speed in Steve Gray, a tailback who is the district high hurdles champion.

Mills said the Bulldogs run from the power I with few passes. Mills is going into the game with one big plus — he has no injured players.

But, he believes the Eagles will have to make fewer mistakes against Borger in order to win.

Happy Man Wins Steer Roping Title

Roy "Tuffy" Thompson won a total of $10,000 at Laramie, Wyo., in the National Finals Steer Roping to win the title of World Champion Steer Roper of 1973. Tuffy won a total of $6,300 this year in RCA approved rodeos.

Roy placed in three of eight go-rounds at Laramie. He won a 1st with 14.9 seconds, a 2nd with a 17.9 seconds, and a 3rd with 17.9 seconds. Roy suffered a horn injury to his left thigh on the first day of roping and rode a friend's horse because his own became crippled. After the first day's roping, eleven of sixteen ropers went out of the average. Fifteen down all eight steers and sixth in the average was paid on seven head. Roy knew when he roped his last steer in the last go-round that he had to beat 19 seconds to win the World's Title. The time was 17.6.

The Steer Roping Finals is held in a large outdoor arena rather than in the coliseum at Oklahoma City with all other Rodeo Cowboy Association events, Dec. 1 through 9. Roy will receive his saddle and belt buckle at the awards banquet in (See HAPPY, page 2)

Immediate Effect Of Beef Thaw Sees Prices Remain Unchanged

Canyon grocers and an expert from West Texas State University agreed this week it is too early to tell the immediate effect of the federal thaw on previously frozen beef prices.

The government's Cost of Living Council was to have taken the ceilings off beef prices as of Wednesday but eliminated price ceilings over the weekend instead.

Canyon grocers said it may be late this week or next week before they can tell what effect the thaw will have. It has been widely predicted that beef prices will rise.

One grocer here said he expects prices to remain stable at near controlled levels at least for this week. He said it appears "everybody's waiting."

Another grocer said he has received information of no change in prices as yet.

"We really are experiencing a kind of indefinite situation," Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of the school of agriculture at WTSU, said. "In the very near future, within the next few days, we should probably see an increase in price because people will begin buying beef again."

When that happens, he said, "wholesalers and retailers are going to have to stock up again."

because they have been a little short.

From there, Smallwood said, some of the controls of supply and demand will come into play. The initial rush should subside within a few weeks and full supply pipelines might cause a softening of the demand, resulting in a slight price rollback.

Over the long range, Smallwood said, the consumer may be paying less for beef than he was when the price freeze took effect.

"Compared to two years ago we could be up as much as eight per cent in available cattle for slaughtering," he said. "There is a very fine line of supply and demand here. When our prices ease off a little, heavy buying takes place. We have a little less and they jump up quite a bit."

What will the long-range effect be?

"Over the next five years the beef industry is predicting a build-up in numbers of beef cattle," Smallwood said. "We have about a 10-year cycle in numbers. We are on the upswing in that number cycle."

Beef was the last item unfrozen by the government's Council. Other grocery items have been without ceiling.

MVC's Favorite Tulsa Buff Foe On Saturday

West Texas State University's Buffaloes defeated the Drake Bulldogs, 13-10, here Saturday night and moved into a tie with New Mexico State for the Missouri Valley Conference lead.

That lead will be on the line Saturday night in Tulsa when the Buffaloes face the powerful Golden Hurricane of the University of Tulsa.

Coach F.A. Dry's Hurricane will be opening their season against the Buffaloes. The only group to watch all seven football playing members of the MVC, the members of the Skywriters tour late in August, picked Tulsa to win the conference championship. Louisville was picked second and the Buffaloes were named to finish third.

Dry, who took over the Tulsa squad at mid-season in 1972 and directed the club to wins in three of its last four games, returns 22 letterman off that club. The man who was the offensive coordinator at Tulsa when the Golden Hurricane captured national passing titles in both 1964 and 1965, has brought in former Tulsa ace Jerry Rhome as quarterback and receiver coach. It was Rhome who aided greatly in those national passing titles.

The head Tulsa coach said this past summer that his club could have the finest group of receivers in the school's history in the likes of T.C. Blair, Steve Largent, Wade Bosarge, Raymond Rhodes and Jerry Dugger.

Joe McCulley, who picked the West Texas State University Freshman defense to pieces two years ago with his passing, is slated to be the starting quarterback against the Buffaloes. Sophomore Jeb Blount from Longview is the backup quarterback and he is also a talented

FROM THE CANYON RIM

I understand Amarillo School District is considering appointment of a citizen's committee to study annexation by the Amarillo School District of some 11 sections of Canyon School District land.

This makes about as much sense as Hitler having appointed a group of Germans on a citizens committee to determine whether he would annex Czechoslovakia.

I'm sure a committee of Czechs would have objected.

Amarillo is still the overgrown village suffering from big briches when dealing with neighboring communities. Amarillo had better not ever forget that it is the small communities that make Amarillo possible.

To suggest that including land in the Canyon School District thwarts its development is sheer nonsense. People are moving into the Canyon School District every day because they WANT their children to go to Canyon schools.

I hope football rules will be changed some day so passing yardage will count for points in a final score.

This would open the game up and keep it exciting.

Baseball is dying because it is such a ho hum game. Crowds won't stick to football long unless there is some razzle dazzle. Win-

The 1974 budget calls for total receipts of $1,199,635, of which $595,000 is expected income from taxes, $175,000 is anticipated income from motor vehicle registration and $262,000 is anticipated from fines and fees of office.

The budget calls for total expenditures of $1,373,804 with disbursements for administration including salaries totalling $397,600, disbursements for operation and maintenance totalling $253,237, disbursements for capital additions totalling $211,000, and disbursements for judicial and law enforcement activities totalling $260,397.

The 1973 budget includes revenues totalling $1,152 million and expenditures totalling $1,220 million. Tax revenue on regular ad valorem taxes totalled $562,000 in the 1973 budget while income from motor vehicle registration totalled $175,000 and income from fines and fees totalled $26,000.

In the 1973 budget, expenditures totalled $1,220 million with $470,153 allocated for administration, $190,000 allocated to insurance, and $210,000 allocated to capital additions.

In other business, commissioners discussed briefly the possibility of the county assuming title to Buffalo Lake.

Carroll Wilson, editor of The Canyon News and member of a steering committee to investigate the fate of the lake, told commissioners that obtaining water to help keep the lake at a constant level is the number one priority of the committee.

The second priority is to seek more local control of the lake.

Wilson said the county might be called upon to take title to only a portion of the 7500 acres of refuge land while West Texas State University might conceivably take the rest of the property for educational purposes.

Commissioners expressed caution in assuming any property.

"We're definitely interested where we can help out," Commissioner Bill Butler said. "But, we would want to proceed with caution."

Commissioners also discussed only briefly a pending contract with the City of Amarillo for fire services to rural county areas.

Potter County commissioners reluctantly approved Monday a contract with that city calling for the county to pay more than $800 for each fire call made to a rural area.

Commissioners Butler and Jim Fletcher are currently negotiating with the City of Amarillo on the contract.

In other business, commissioners:

- * approved leasing of office space in the South Amarillo courthouse annex to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department for $284 per month
- * reaffirmed an agreement with Bill R. McMorris and Associates of Amarillo for production of specifications for county road construction.
- * reaffirmed an agreement with the City of Amarillo tax office to provide tax information for the computerized rolls of Randall County
- * adopted a resolution approving the regionalizing plan for the Amarillo Mental Health-Mental Retardation Regional Center.

Leading Tulsa's talented defense is pre-season All-American Danny Colbert, a senior secondary player from Houston. Dry rates the 6-1, 173-pounder on a par with Ralph McGill, who had such an outstanding game against West Texas State two years ago in a 17-13 victory by Tulsa.

West Texas State has yet to win in three outings against Tulsa. The Golden Hurricane defeated West Texas, 32-0, in 1945 and 26-13 in 1947.

The Buffaloes rolled up 254 rushing yards in the victory over Drake and took advantage of Bulldog errors to recover four fumbles and intercept one pass.

All-American candidate Billy Pritchett paced the Buffalo rushing attack with 112 yards on 28 carries. The 227-pound senior went over the 100-yard mark for the ninth time in his 18 collegiate games. He had missed the final four games in 1972 with a knee injury and Saturday's game was his first test under fire since the Northern Illinois contest last fall.

Quarterback Don Nava sparked a second quarter rally which put the Buffaloes in front, 7-3. The junior college transfer hit on the four of eight passes during the contest for 49 yards and rushed four times for 35 yards.

The Buffaloes stopped Drake twice inside the West Texas 10-yard line. The first goal line was in the third quarter when the Buffaloes halted Drake at the two-yard line. Senior safety Daryl Carr intercepted a Bulldog pass at the Buffalo three-yard line in the closing minutes of play.

Linebacker Steve Rogers, a starter from Sunray, broke his right arm during the contest and will be lost for at least six weeks. He will probably be replaced at that position by junior letterman Gary Weaver.

Oklahoma City at that time. The people of Wyoming presented Roy with a plaque, head stall, coat, hat, tie, tack, rope and other gifts. He also received a four foot high traveling trophy which will be on display at Production Credit in Tulsa for a few weeks and will later be displayed in Happy.

This was Roy Thompson's second straight Finals in steer roping. He began the 1973 season with a bang, winning $3939 at the Cheyenne Frontier Days rodeo, where he finished 2nd in the event average with 62.3 seconds on three steers — only one-tenth of a second behind first place winner John Miller. Roy's efforts at Cheyenne included a solid run of 19.4 seconds in a muddy arena to take 3rd in the first go-round. One of his best runs this year occurred at Lovington, N.M. where he posted the fastest time, 13.9 seconds, to win 1st in the second go-round. He has won over $20,000 this year in all the ropings and rodeos he has entered. Others of these include Ogallala, Neb. and Casper and Gillette, Wyo.

Roy married Judy Boyd in 1963 and has lived fourteen miles southeast of Happy in a ranch style brick home for the past ten years. Judy and Roy have two children, Roy Dee, seven years old and Jobeth, three years old. Roy Dee made his rodeo debut at Happy last month by team roping with his grandfather, Copus Boyd.

"Tuffy" was reared and graduated from high school at Sunniet where his mother, Mrs. Orrin Thompson, still makes her home. "Tuffy" entered and won the Calf Roping in the National High School Finals in the fifties, and he has been collecting trophies ever since. He ropes calves, steers, and team ropes, but no longer enters steer wrestling events.

The National finals at Laramie began with a banquet and cocktail hour on Friday evening for all ropers and their wives. Wyoming CowBelles served hors d'oeuvre and gave packets containing educational beef materials and a history of Wyoming Beef.

Saturday morning, Judy Thompson modeled in the style show and make-up demonstration at the Wive's Branch.

A breakfast for ropers and their wives was served on Sunday morning. Here each roper's wife was presented a wool rose. Judy says, "Wyoming people were wonderful hosts. We were treated royally."

Tuffy traveled from the National Finals to the Pendleton Rodeo. He has already begun roping for a new year.

Canyon Chamber Votes To Assist WT

Board members of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce expressed an abiding interest in women's athletics at West Texas State University Monday night as they voted to give two scholarships to women athletes and possibly to have a fund-raising event this winter with proceeds to go to WTSU women athletes.

Two scholarships of $130 each will go to two women athletes at WTSU for the fall semester and two more scholarships of like amount will be awarded for the spring term.

Money for the two scholarships was donated last spring by Keith Jackson, ABC sports-caster who was keynote speaker at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. Jackson donated $500 to be used to aid women's athletics.

Recipients of the first semester scholarships will be named at a later date.

Discussion of the scholarships brought up the need for adequate funding in general for women's athletics at WTSU.

Chamber vice president David West told the board members women students at WTSU who participate in the athletic program must undertake various money-raising projects to fund their own programs.

He said women compete against schools such as Texas Tech on a regular basis in athletics.

To aid in funding the women's athletic program, the chamber discussed the possibility of staging a benefit basketball game during the winter with proceeds going to the program through the Keith Jackson Scholarship fund.

In other business, the board discussed plans for several upcoming events including the Canyon 500 bicycle races, the businessman-new faculty dinner and the chamber breakfast.

The businessman-new faculty dinner is slated at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 22 at the WTSU dining hall.

The dinner features businessmen from Canyon serving as hosts to new faculty members at WTSU and in the Canyon school district. About 50 new faculty members will be invited to attend the dinner with their tickets paid for by businessmen.

The second annual bicycle rodeo and Canyon 500 races are scheduled for all day Sept. 29 in downtown Canyon.

The bike rodeo will be during the morning with a 10-speed bike awarded the winner of a drawing.

Entry blanks and other information on the rodeo will be available Monday in the Canyon elementary and junior high schools.

Several races around the courthouse square are slated for the afternoon with ribbons to be awarded and $250 in gift certificates for winners of the big 100-lap relay race.

Entry blanks for the race are available at Western Auto, White's, and the Chamber of Commerce office.

The quarterly chamber breakfast for members and their guests will be Oct. 4 in the community center. The breakfast will be sponsored by the doctors of Neblett Clinic and will be free to chamber members and guests.

Theme of the breakfast will focus on WTSU and the Canyon schools with short speeches expected from various administrators.

New action-oriented materials for two divisions of the Camp Fire Girls were released to the members Wednesday. The Blue Birds, ages 6-8, and the Adventurers, ages 9-11, are the two groups involved, including changes for over 400,000 youth members. The 63-year-old national youth organization is keeping pace with the times in an effort to comply with the program's standard for modernization and updating. New books for the Discovery, ages 12-13, and Horizon, ages 14-high school, groups were published in 1971.

Camp Fire Girls programs are completely new and every major book has been re-written so the traditional Camp Fire values are still present, but the needs and interests of the young people of the 70's are reflected. The programs are designed to help the young people prepare to completely deal with their futures.

After three years of consultation with educators, youth and human relations workers, and Camp Fire Girls leaders, it was recommended that Camp Fire Girls make an explicit reinstatement of the traditional focus. The new focus will be on helping young people learn what they need to know to become competent, caring and fulfilled adults. The new programs for the 70's will deal with concerns like ecology, drugs and family relations. The programs will also look towards the future with an emphasis on encouraging self-development and self-awareness, building leadership skills, planning and decision making, encouraging the development of positive attitudes towards self and others, and fostering a sense of community development.

The specific changes made in the Blue Bird program will focus on a personal theme. There will be written books for the group that accompanies the traditional "Blue Bird Wish," a story and activity book. The new book for six-year-olds will be titled "It's All About Me," the seven-year-olds will have "Here I Am," and eight-year-olds will have "I Can Do Lots of Things."

The Blue Bird program will also have its own national projects, recognition and ceremonial activities. Also included are outdoor activities suggested on a year-round basis dealing with ecology, nature apprecia-

Two Ballet Companies Top Bill For Palo Duro Show

The Panhandle's premier dance master, Neil Hess, will combine the talents of the Lubbock Civic Ballet with his own Amarillo Repertory Dance Company to bring area viewers "An Evening of Dance and Song" this weekend in the Palo Duro Canyon Pioneer Amphitheatre.

For the canyon presentation, Hess will direct the troupe in performance of "A Dance Trio," "Jazz-A Space Odyssey,"

Census Survey To Eye Disease

Immunization against certain diseases will be the topic of a Bureau of the Census survey of sample households in the Canyon area next week.

The survey, conducted nationally every year, provides data on immunization against influenza, smallpox, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, measles and mumps. This year's survey will gather information about chicken pox, diabetes, and certain chronic lung and heart diseases. Results of the survey will provide information for administration of health programs geared to disease prevention. Information supplied by individuals taking part in the survey is held confidential by the usual questions asked about employment and unemployment for the Department of Labor.

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

I understand Amarillo School District is considering appointment of a citizen's committee to study annexation by the Amarillo School District of some 11 sections of Canyon School District land.

This makes about as much sense as Hitler having appointed a group of Germans on a citizens committee to determine whether he would annex Czechoslovakia.

I'm sure a committee of Czechs would have objected.

Amarillo is still the overgrown village suffering from big briches when dealing with neighboring communities. Amarillo had better not ever forget that it is the small communities that make Amarillo possible.

To suggest that including land in the Canyon School District thwarts its development is sheer nonsense. People are moving into the Canyon School District every day because they WANT their children to go to Canyon schools.

I hope football rules will be changed some day so passing yardage will count for points in a final score.

This would open the game up and keep it exciting.

Baseball is dying because it is such a hum game. Crowds won't stick to football long unless there is some razzle dazzle. Winning isn't everything anymore. To get the cash on the line there must be entertainment and fans just aren't entertained by three yards and a cloud of dust.

J. D. Byrd went to Canada on a fishing trip recently.

He said he found open hostility toward the United States there.

Every morning huge war planes soared over the Canadian forests headed for the early warning line. Industry from the US has bolstered the Canadian economy.

Do they resent us for these two things?

I guess they do.

Canada is almost a welfare state and its income tax is lower than ours. Why shouldn't it be?

We furnish their protection and grease their economy.

Most people resent things you do to them more than things you do for them.

California is reinstating the death penalty.

It's the best cure for some crimes. Of course it doesn't reform the criminal but it protects the innocent.

There are some types of murderers that kill only once but these are outnumbered by those who kill again and again. The rope is the only answer for this kind.

California has found this out.

The 1974 budget calls for total receipts of $1,199,635, of which $595,000 is expected income from taxes, $175,000 is anticipated income from motor vehicle registration and $262,000 is anticipated from fines and fees of office.

The budget calls for total expenditures of $1,373,804 with disbursements for administration including salaries totalling $397,600, disbursements for operation and maintenance totalling $253,237, disbursements for capital additions totalling $211,000, and disbursements for judicial and law enforcement activities totalling $260,397.

The 1973 budget includes revenues totalling $1,152 million and expenditures totalling $1,220 million. Tax revenue on regular ad valorem taxes totalled $562,000 in the 1973 budget while income from motor vehicle registration totalled $175,000 and income from fines and fees totalled $26,000.

In the 1973 budget, expenditures totalled $1,220 million with $470,153 allocated for administration, $190,000 allocated to insurance, and $210,000 allocated to capital additions.

In other business, commissioners discussed briefly the possibility of the county assuming title to Buffalo Lake.

Carroll Wilson, editor of The Canyon News and member of a steering committee to investigate the fate of the lake, told commissioners that obtaining water to help keep the lake at a constant level is the number one priority of the committee.

The second priority is to seek more local control of the lake.

Wilson said the county might be called upon to take title to only a portion of the 7500 acres of refuge land while West Texas State University might conceivably take the rest of the property for educational purposes.

Commissioners expressed caution in assuming any property.

"We're definitely interested where we can help out," Commissioner Bill Butler said. "But, we would want to proceed with caution."

Commissioners also discussed only briefly a pending contract with the City of Amarillo for fire services to rural county areas.

Potter County commissioners reluctantly approved Monday a contract with that city calling for the county to pay more than $800 for each fire call made to a rural area.

Commissioners Butler and Jim Fletcher are currently negotiating with the City of Amarillo on the contract.

In other business, commissioners:

- * approved leasing of office space in the South Amarillo courthouse annex to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department for $284 per month
- * reaffirmed an agreement with Bill R. McMornies and Associates of Amarillo for production of specifications for county road construction.
- * reaffirmed an agreement with the City of Amarillo tax office to provide tax information for the computerized rolls of Randall County
- * adopted a resolution approving the regionalizing plan for the Amarillo Mental Health-Mental Retardation Regional Center.

Canyon Chamber Votes To Assist WT

Board members of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce expressed an abiding interest in women's athletics at West Texas State University Monday night as they voted to give two scholarships to women athletes and possibly to have a fund-raising event this winter with proceeds to go to WTSU women athletics.

Two scholarships of $130 each will go to two women athletes at WTSU for the fall semester and two more scholarships of like amount will be awarded for the spring term.

Money for the two scholarships was donated last spring by Keith Jackson, ABC sports-caster who was keynote speaker at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. Jackson donated $500 to be used to aid women's athletics.

Recipients of the first semester scholarships will be named at a later date.

Discussion of the scholarships brought up the need for adequate funding in general for women's athletics at WTSU.

Chamber vice president David West told the board members women students at WTSU who participate in the athletic program must undertake various money-raising projects to fund their own programs.

He said women compete against schools such as Texas Tech on a regular basis in athletics, but funding from WTSU is minimal.

To aid in funding the women's athletic program, the chamber discussed the possibility of staging a benefit basketball game during the winter with proceeds going to the program through the Keith Jackson Scholarship fund.

In other business, the board discussed plans for several upcoming events including the Canyon 500 bicycle races, the businessman-new faculty dinner and the chamber breakfast.

The businessman-new faculty dinner is slated at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 22 at the WTSU dining hall.

The dinner features businessmen from Canyon serving as hosts to new faculty members at WTSU and in the Canyon school district. About 50 new faculty members will be invited to attend the dinner with their tickets paid for by businessmen.

The second annual bicycle rodeo and Canyon 500 races are scheduled for all day Sept. 29 in downtown Canyon.

The bike rodeo will be during the morning with a 10-speed bike awarded the winner of a drawing.

Entry blanks and other information on the rodeo will be available Monday in the Canyon elementary- and junior high schools.

Several races around the courthouse square are slated for the afternoon with ribbons to be awarded and $250 in gift certificates for winners of the big 100-lap relay race.

Entry blanks for the race are available at Western Auto, White's, and the Chamber of Commerce office.

The quarterly chamber breakfast for members and their guests will be Oct. 4 in the community center. The breakfast will be sponsored by the doctors of Neblett Clinic and will be free to chamber members and guests.

Theme of the breakfast will focus on WTSU and the Canyon schools with short speeches expected from various administrators.

Game moves on and Drake could score except for strong Buff defense inside 10.

Her head rests on an arm-prop. Drake tries the line. Her head sinks lower. Drake tries again. Head still lower. Will her chin hit the table?

She declines chili with a cold reply at half-time.

Head sinks lower during second half, although she squirms as Drake nears goal line.

Game ends. Still no notes. Picks up gear, a handbag, pad and various and sundry forms and leaves.

At least she didn't cry.

Oklahoma City at that time. The people of Wyoming presented Roy with a plaque, head stall, coat, hat, tie tack, rope can and other gifts. He also received a four foot high traveling trophy which will be on display at Production Credit in Tulsa for a few weeks and will later be displayed in Happy.

This was Roy Thompson's second straight Finals in steer roping. He began the 1973 season with a bang, winning $3939 at the Cheyenne Frontier Days rodeo, where he finished 2nd in the event average with 62.3 seconds on three steers — only one-tenth of a second behind first place winner John Miller. Roy's efforts at Cheyenne included a solid run of 19.4 seconds in a muddy arena to take 3rd in the first go-round. One of his best runs this year occurred at Lovington, N.M. where he posted the fastest time, 13.9 seconds, to win 1st in the second go-round. He has won over $20,000 this year in all the ropings and rodeos he has entered. Others of these include Ogallala, Neb. and Casper and Gillette, Wyo.

Roy married Judy Boyd in 1963 and has lived fourteen miles southeast of Happy in a ranch style brick home for the past ten years. Judy and Roy have two children, Roy Dee, seven years old and Jobeth, three years old. Roy Dee made his rodeo debut at Happy last month by team roping with his grandfather, Copus Boyd.

"Tuffy" was reared and graduated from high school at Stinnett where his mother, Mrs. Orin Thompson, still makes her home. "Tuffy" entered and won the Calf Roping in the National High School Finals in the fifties, and he has been collecting trophies ever since. He ropes calves, steers, and team ropes; but no longer enters steer wrestling events.

The National finals at Laramie began with a banquet and cocktail hour on Friday evening for all ropers and their wives. Wyoming CowBelles served hors d'oeuvre and gave packets containing educational beef materials and a history of Wyoming Beef.

Saturday morning, Judy Thompson modeled in the style show and make-up demonstration at the Wives' Brunch.

A breakfast for ropers and their wives was served on Sunday morning. Here each roper's wife was presented a wool rose. Judy says, "Wyoming people were wonderful hosts. We were treated royally."

Tuffy traveled from the National Finals to the Pendleton Rodeo. He has already begun roping for a new year.

Revival Scheduled

Evangelist Charles Broadhurst and vocalist Geary Brogren will be featured in a week-long revival beginning Sunday at Cavalry Baptist Church here.

Servings on Sunday and Sept. 23 are slated at 10:55 a.m. and 7 p.m. at the church.

Weekday services are scheduled at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 17, through Thursday, Sept. 20. Services will be conducted at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 21, and at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 22.

The Saturday evening revival session has been designated as Youth Night, a spokesman said.

Choir practice will be held at 7 p.m. each evening except Friday throughout the revival.

5% Increase In University Enrollment

With the final day for enrollment at West Texas State University now history, Dr. Donald Cates, registrar, reports a five per cent increase for the fall term.

Cates said 6949 students had signed up for classes at the university through Saturday, an increase of 306 over the same period last fall. He noted that while that number is indicative of the number of students who started enrollment, it does not represent the number who actually paid fees.

The registrar will have no indication of in what areas the enrollment rose until after the 12th class day next week, when WTSU enrollment becomes official.

Camp Fire Girls Revise And Up-Date Programs

The Camp Fire Girls finished off its membership drive in the Canyon area Wednesday with an assembly at a Canyon school. However, memberships are still open and information and forms may be obtained from the Camp Fire Girls office in Amarillo.

New action-oriented materials for two divisions of the Camp Fire Girls were released to the members Wednesday. The Blue Birds, ages 6-8, and the Adventurers, ages 9-11, are the two groups involved, including changes for over 400,000 youth members. The 63-year-old national youth organization is keeping pace with the times in an effort to comply with the program's standard for modernization and updating. New books for the Discovery, ages 12-13, and Horizon, ages 14-high school, groups were published in 1971.

Camp Fire Girls programs are completely new and every major book has been re-written so the traditional Camp Fire values are still present, but the needs and interests of the young people of the 70's are reflected. The programs are designed to help the young people prepare to completely deal with their futures.

After three years of consultation with educators, youth and human relations workers, and Camp Fire Girls leaders, it was recommended that Camp Fire Girls make an explicit reinstatement of the traditional focus. The new focus will be on helping young people learn what they need to know to become competent, caring and fulfilled adults. The new programs for the 70's will deal with concerns like ecology, drugs and family relations. The programs will also look towards the future with an emphasis on encouraging self-development and self-awareness, building leadership skills, planning and decision making, encouraging the development of positive attitudes towards self and others, and fostering a sense of community development.

The specific changes made in the Blue Bird program will focus on a personal theme. There will be write-in books for the group that accompanies the traditional "Blue Bird Wish," a story and activity book. The new book for six-year-olds will be titled "It's All About Me," the seven-year-olds will have "Here I Am," and eight-year-olds will have "I Can Do Lots of Things."

The Blue Bird program will also have its own national projects, recognition and ceremonial activities. Also included are outdoor activities suggested on a year-round basis dealing with ecology, nature appreciation.

Comm. Meets Friday

Members of the Randall County Historical Survey Committee will meet at 3:30 p.m. Friday in the commissioner's courtroom of the courthouse.

Glenn Dowlen, chairman, said the meeting is called to discuss activities of the committee.

Suggestions on completed projects or ideas for new projects will be welcome, Dowlen said.

tion, outdoor play, camping games and skills, outdoor living and outdoor community service.

The new Blue Bird leader's book includes activities designed to help children develop attitudes that oppose racism and sex stereotyping. The book also stresses and advocates that girls can and should develop ingenuity, creativity, initiative, perseverance, strength, autonomy, self-confidence, etc.

The Adventure program has also taken on some new aspects. This group was formerly called the Camp Fire Girls. The name has been changed to Camp Fire Adventurers and the program book is titled "Adventure."

In this group the girls will receive recognition for planning and decision making as well as for completion of projects. There will be special designations for Trail Seeker, Wood Gatherer, and Fire Mender awarded at the beginning of a program sequence that signify participation in planning and decision making. Send off celebrations will also be recognized for planning.

A chapter on religion will be replaced with a chapter titled "The Richness of Religions" which stresses the application of worship and ethics to all aspects of life and program.

In "Try-Ads" each child may explore activities in progressive steps at whatever level is appropriate to her interest and skills.

In "Venture Crafts," members plan and evaluate their own challenging activities according to contracts designed by them and their leader.

Census Survey To Eye Disease

Immunization against certain diseases will be the topic of a Bureau of the Census survey of sample households in the Canyon area next week.

The survey, conducted nationally every year, provides data on immunization against influenza, smallpox, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, measles and mumps. This year's survey will gather information about chicken pox, diabetes, and certain chronic lung and heart diseases. Results of the survey will provide information for administration of health programs geared to disease prevention. The health questions on the survey will be in addition to the usual questions asked about employment and unemployment for the Department of Labor.

Services Held For City Child

Funeral services were held Monday for Tiffani Anne Jones, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones of 3308 Linda Lane.

The Rev. Bill Foil, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. Services were at LaGrone Funeral Chapel and burial followed at Dreamland Cemetery.

Palbearers were John Jones, Bill Jones, Sam Harlan and Ronnie Kenmore.

She died Saturday at Peaceful Valley Children's Home in Bangs, Tex. She was born in Amarillo.

Survivors included the parents, a brother, Mike, and a sister, Nikki, all of the home; and maternal grandparents, Mrs. Hazel Ward of Littlefield and A. D. Ward of Canyon.

The family has requested that memorials be made in the form of donations to the March of Dimes or the Amarillo Association for Retarded Children.

Three Arrested In Case Involving Shooting of Man

Three Amarillo men were arrested Tuesday and arraigned before noon on charges of assault with intent to murder in connection with the assault late Sunday of the son of prominent Amarilloans.

Phillip Max Clark, 19, of 2704 S. Garfield, Roy Lynn Norton, 19, and Mike Bryant, 20, both of 4314 Mesa Circle appeared before Justice of the Peace W.W. Hancock, who set bond at $20,000 each.

The three were arrested earlier in the day by Randall County Sheriff Cliff Longest and members of the Amarillo Police Department, the Metro Intelligence Unit and a special force from the Department of Public Safety.

While officers were still seeking a motive in the late night shooting of David Loewentstern, 20, son of a prominent Amarillo family, Longest said the shooting apparently had nothing to do with a fatal accident in which Loewentstern was involved several weeks ago in Amarillo.

Longest said written statements have been taken from the three Amarillo men in connection with the case.

He said the shooting occurred about 11:40 p.m. Sunday at the apartment in Lantern Square Apartments of David and his brother, Kevin, 18.

Longest said David had just arrived at the apartment and had told Kevin that if anybody asked for him to tell them he wasn't there.

Kevin answered a knock at the door while David was in a bedroom.

Longest said three men entered the apartment, one wielding a shotgun and questioned Kevin at length about his brother.

David stepped down the hall and was shot through the stomach with one blast of the weapon.

Longest said a .16 gauge shotgun was recovered when the suspects were arrested.

The three remained in Randall County Jail Tuesday.

Variety Ring Club Has First Meeting

During the social hour many members gave interesting readings, some told of their summer activities and others did hand work.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Daisy Neal, Iva Priddy, Modena Barker, Thelma Burts, Mae Johnson, Roxie Hammons, Lydia Matsler, Laura Hartman, E. P. Harding and Jettrew Winters.

Guests present were Mrs. A. K. Goodman and Mrs. Pearl Freeman from Greenville, Tenn.

The next meeting will be Sept. 21 in the home of Mrs. Winters.

Economic Education Center Established

The new chairman of the Department of Economics at West Texas State University announced today the establishment of a Center for Economic Education at WTSU.

Dr. Barry L. Duman said the center, only one of three or four in Texas, will "enhance the economic understanding in the public schools in the region that we serve."

The center was established through a grant from the Texas Council on Economic Education, an affiliate of the Joint Council on Economic Education.

Duman, 30, succeeded J. Herschel Coffee as department head Sept. 1. Coffee retired after 48 years of service to West Texas State.

The center will provide seminars and special courses for teachers so "we may educate the teachers who will in turn educate the students in the classrooms," Duman said.

Dr. Paul Gowens, assistant professor of business, will be director of the center.

Courses of study relevant to the Panhandle area are being developed by the department in the economics of natural resources — primarily oil and gas, Duman said.

"This is relevant because of the energy crisis, and we will consider issues such as distribution and pricing," he added.

Noting the Panhandle's growing importance in international trade in cattle production and other commodities, Duman said he wants to "add vitality to our offerings in the areas of international trade and finance."

Other areas of study being considered for the department are the economics of aging, health care and migrant workers, he said.

A course of be offered next fall, Economics 101 — Current Economics Issues, is hoped to reach the student "who has no prior exposure to economics and whose major does not require any economics work," he added.

Duman sees the future as bright for economics majors, with relatively good starting salaries and numerous employment opportunities in banking, government service and private industry.

An economics major could be "anybody who has a desire to confront controversial issues and be willing to logically reason through them," he said.

Duman, who came to WTSU in 1969 as an assistant professor of economics, was an Emma K. Carr Scholar at George Washington University, where he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in government. He held a fellowship at the University of Delaware, where he was awarded a Master's Degree in Economics in 1966.

The New York City native received a Ph.D. in 1971 from the University of Southern California.

Boy Scout Troop 130 Has Rally Tonight

By TROYCE MULHERIN

IT'S TIME TO "run, jump or fly" to the Cub Scout Rally and ice cream party — tonight — at the cafeteria — at Gene Howe school. Time to show is 7:30 p.m. All boys, who have not been in Pack 130 before, and who are either 8, 9, or 10 years of age, are invited to attend this ice cream party. Once there, prospective Cub Scouts will learn how they can get in on things like camping, the pine wood derby, Scout rallies, Indian lore, and a gob of other interesting and fun activities in which Pack 130 indulges.

AT LEAST ONE parent must accompany the prospective Cub Scout. In fact, the entire family is invited to come — after all, Scouting is a family activity, too. There are many new people in our community, and they are encouraged and welcomed to take part in this rewarding program. If for some reason or tother, attending this meeting proves impossible, feel free to call one of the adult leaders for information. Sarah and Bill Edwards qualify in this respect, and their number is 352-3136.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 16TH is upon us! The Shellye Carroll Benefit Race, sponsored by the Track and Trail Sports Riders of Amarillo, starts at 1:30. The motor cross pit is located in the vicinity of Interstate 40 East and the Texas Tourist Information Center exit. After taking this exit, look for the signs directing you to the place where the action is! Lakeside Drive runs right by the pit. Shouldn't have any problem getting there. Just get there. If you can't go, buy a ticket for a friend, or just buy a ticket for Shellye. Tickets, at $2 each, are available at all Canyon schools. Also, a call to 355-2040 will net you pre-race information and/or delivery of tickets. All proceeds, outside of the purse, will go into the Shellye Carroll Fund. Oh, yes, tickets will be available at the gate. You are guaranteed an afternoon of excitement and thrills! Go for fun and for Shellye!

THE AMARILLO ART League held its fall salad luncheon at the Federation of Women's Club Sept. 4 with our Babe (Mrs. G.F.) Miller presiding. With a theme of "Tis always fair weather when friends get together," roll call was had with league members sharing their "summer memories." Mrs. W.H. Uterback, Mrs. Robert Field and Mrs. R.H. Ray served as hostesses. Mrs. Jess Maddox gave a resume of the upcoming programs, with a field trip to TSTI on the agenda for October's meeting.

GLORIA MCGILL, ONE of our fourth grade teachers at Gene Howe, has three adorable puppies to give away. The pups, which will be small when they become dogs, are part beagle and part terrier. Two are black and one is brownish — all are about two months old. And, all are very, very intelligent and easily trained. Get your very own warm bundle of affection by calling Gloria at 352-3173 after school hours!

THOSE "LITTLE OL' Carpet Makers" have been hard at it this past week. Dedicated gluers have assembled area carpets for the kindergarten room, the 1st grade rooms, and part of the 2nd grade rooms. Have made six so far. Need more. Need more carpeting, too. We have used carpet samples, carpet pieces and carpet scraps. Tossed in some astro turf for good luck. The teachers are using these carpets, measuring approximately 6 feet by 9 feet, in their reading areas. The youngsters sure like to learn in comfort. Please — please — please — if you have any carpet pieces, new or used (must be clean, tho), either take them to the office at the school, or call 355-0028 or 352-6053 and arrangements will be made to pick them up. If you don't happen to have any on hand, scrounge some up. Even one little ol' piece of any size will help. Please and thank you.

JACKIE MAYFIELD IS home and doing well following surgery at Northwest Texas Hospital this past week. She plans on being "out and about" in about a week, but no heavy work is in her future for a while. In other words, no more gardening for this summer. Glad you are home, Jackie, get all well soon!

OVER THREE HUNDRED interested parents have joined the Gene Howe PTA as of last Friday. Everyone is welcome to become a part of this active, worthwhile association. So, join. Become a supporting member of your school and your community. The membership contest ends at the close of the PTA meeting on Oct. 8, but membership in the PTA remains open for the school year. If for some reason your youngster didn't get home with his PTA letter, simply put your one dollar per parent dues in an envelope, write your name(s) on the front. Also, jot down the youngster's name and the name of the student's teacher on same and send it with your student to school. Membership cards will be distributed with the Gene Howe Directory.

THE REV. HARDY Stevens relates that the first Sunday of services held at Lamont Street Baptist Chapel were well attended. The Friendship Baptist Church is sponsoring the Chapel on Lamont Street and helping in every way. Bible study is held every Sunday morning at 9:45, with the regular worship hour starting at 11:00. The Sunday evening worship hour starts at 7:00. The Chapel will be having a Christian training session to start each Sunday evening at 6:00, as soon as organizational plans are finalized. Wednesday night Bible study starts at 7:00. An excellent youth program is in the planning stages, too. We welcome the Lamont Street Baptist Chapel.

NOT ONLY DO we have lots of new youngsters at Gene Howe, we have a brand-new class this year. Gay Cochran has moved from the L/L/D class to the special reading class, with sessions starting as of last Monday. The school is in the process of equipping the reading room, which is located in what once was the PE room. Gay will be helping 36 youngsters a day in 45 minute sessions. (That's six youngsters for 45 minutes for six classes daily).

READING SKILLS IS the name of the game in this room, with remedial work being done in comprehension, sight work, the phonetic areas (both vowels and consonants), and the beginning

Coffee Held By Study Club

The Canyon Study Club held a coffee Saturday morning in the home of the club president, Mrs. Susan Dolle, to begin club activities for the year.

The coffee was planned by the club social committee with Mrs. Pam Ashburn, Mrs. Jimmie Glenn, Mrs. Johnny Raymond, and Mrs. Susan Dolle, serving as committee members.

Yearbooks for the 1973-74 year were distributed to the members. The books feature the club's colors of pink and white, and the theme is "The Best Me," and was prepared by Mrs. Treasure Brasher.

The serving table also carried out the club colors and was decorated with pink carnations, the club flower.

Breakfast fare was served to 22 members and invited guests that included the club's scholarship recipients, and the winners in the Miss Canyon pageant.

The next meeting of the club is Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Treasure Brasher at 2516 7th Ave.

Two Canyon Students Get Masters Degrees

Two Canyon students at North Texas State University have received degrees during summer convocation.

They are Mrs. Carol Brown Mathews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher Brown of Canyon, and Mrs. Carolyn Nelson of 2205 6th Ave. Both were awarded masters degrees in library science.

A total of 36 doctoral degrees, 470 master's degrees and 628 bachelor's degrees were awarded during the summer exercises.

and ending sounds. In other words, they will be studying in all areas necessary to implement and improve existing reading skills. Gay has planned several different approaches to be employed in her classes — all adding up to a fun and interesting learning experience. Added benefits will probably show up in a boost in the ol' writing and spelling, too.

ANOTHER CHANGE in the format at Gene Howe finds our 6th grade students changing classes, treating all our 6th grade teachers to their presence daily. Mrs. Marion Shoemaker has the honor of teaching the students in reading; Mrs. Suzella Parsons teaches the science and health classes, as well as the language classes. Everyone, including the teachers, are adjusting to this change of pace, and an increased sense of individual responsibility on the student's part is rapidly developing.

TIME AGAIN TO get your name on the list for that handy Canyon Eagle Band Community Birthday Calendar, sponsored by the Canyon Band Parents Club. Listing for a single birthday is $1. A married couple can list their anniversary and their birthdays for $1.50. A family gets to list the parents' anniversary, and everyone's birthday for $2. Not only that, the contributors get a calendar all their very own. Very, very handy. An extra calendar will cost an extra dollar.

THIS UNDERTAKING HELPS to defray expenses incurred by all the bands in the Canyon school system, and band members started taking orders on the 13th. The calendars for next year will be delivered to you the first part of December. Community events and club meetings and events also appear in the calendar. Get one. Help the bands out. And, help yourself keep up with what you missed this year 'cause you didn't have a handy band calendar! Tell a member of any of the bands you want a calendar, and you'll have a calendar.

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall — see you at the motor cross pit! Troyce — 352-6053

The Canyon High School Junior Varsity downed the Clayton Junior Varsity 19-2 in action Saturday night in Clayton.

Standout player was Craig Johnson with a 98 yard touchdown run in the 3rd quarter and a score from the 25 yard line in the 4th.

Rusty Holliday chalked up one point on a P.A.T. Hoss Ratliff scored a third touchdown on a 20 yard pass from David Coronado. The conversion failed.

Clayton's only score was on a safety in the 2nd quarter.

Statistics show Craig Johnson gaining 235 yards, Kenny Basinger with 13, Rusty Holliday for 34 yards, Stan Prichard with 25 and Ron Mills for 42 yards.

Mail Service For Stamps Now Offered

A new "stamp by mail" service will be offered beginning later this month through the Canyon Post Office, according to Postmaster LeeRoy Moreland.

He said the new service will permit customers to purchase stamps and stamped envelopes through the mail using a personal check or money order.

"This service will be of great benefit to all our customers and especially to shut-ins, the elderly and working wives," Moreland said. "It will enable them to satisfy their postal needs simply, rapidly and inexpensively from their own homes."

Leaflets spelling out the details of the service will be distributed to area households and small businesses during the next few weeks.

Moreland said the service has been tested in several cities with positive results.

A 40-cent fee will be charged to defray the cost of two-way postage, internal processing of checks and other costs associated with this new service, according to Moreland.

By TOOTIE BYBEE
HELLO ONCE AGAIN from our little oasis on the plains! Missed all of you this summer but kept myself busy in many projects and fun activities. Guess we all hate to let go of the summer time and the good times that go with it. But winter always brings its good times and joys and ... cold Panhandle weather.

FIRST ... WANTED TO let everyone know that it is Band calendar time again. Got a telephone call from Darlene Finke and she asked for everyone's cooperation in helping to make this the most successful year yet for the Band Calendar sales.

So, when the kiddoes come around and ask you to support them in this effort hope you will do so willingly! It goes to the combined bands of Canyon School District.

AS WE LOOK out over the Park since May we sure can spot a lot of difference. We had to say good-bye to so many good friends this summer ... but have said hello to many new friends and neighbors. We so hated to see the Howard Jones move to Fritch. Their lives were so interwoven with our own in community affairs and as personal friends. The ice cream supper the Hudsons gave in their honor before they moved was a sad, happy affair. We enjoyed the company and fellowship of all the neighbors who came but hated to have to say good-bye. We all seemed a little happier when the whole Thursday Club took covered dishes and drove to Fritch to spend the day with Shirley. The new home is lovely and all seemed to be settling in and finally adjusting to the change. Guess with the move and oldest son Gregg getting married Shirley has really been a busy gal. Said about all her spare time was spent in crying. Gregg and Beverly Parker were married Aug. 31 in the San Jacinto Assembly of God. Good luck to them both. Shirley said hello to everyone back here and she'll be over one of these Thursdays to see everyone. We'll sure miss them but know they will enrich the lives of those people around them there in Fritch just as they did here.

THOSE OF YOU who got to meet and visit with Joan Gillis's parents know what a delight they were. Well they said good-bye to kin and flew back to jolly ole England the first of September. Hope to see the Greggs this time next year, and say they were really nice, nice people.

WELL, JOYCE MINOR has gotten the good luck of getting to go to Glorieta twice this summer. Just a couple of weeks ago she accompanied the Single Adult Department of her Church to The Single Adult Conference they were having at Glorieta. Told me Gene had to stay home and work but that she had the very best time. Six of the members of her class got to attend. What about sweet Marcia you ask? Well, just so happens that Joyce's mom and dad were here from Oklahoma. So, Grandma and Grandpa Jones baby sat their little granddaughter. Joyce told me she is having to kinda go a little heavy on the discipline to correct a few things that Granny and Grandpa thought were so cute!

THE INDIAN GUIDES under the leadership of the Dads are in the process of expanding their program by starting a new tribe in the Gene Howe area. If you are interested contact Roger Whitehead at 622-0052 or the YMCA.

SHERRY EVANS, GLENNA EVANS, Kay, Karen and Dana Tow and Leslie Bybee were part of the Youth Choir that presented the rock musical "Tell It Like It Is" at the new Lamont Baptist Chapel just North of Gene Howe School. It was the church's opening and the choir was invited from the mother church, Friendship Baptist, to come and sing for them. There was a packed house and some standing and it was all well worth the effort as the 35 or so young people sang their hearts out. It was just great, so wish all of you could have shared the experience. The Chapel will now be holding regular services and all are invited to attend with Brother Hardy Stevens as pastor. Will be seeing you all next time.

TO BETTY MALSON: Hope you enjoyed your cruise this summer as much as I did. Ha!

Constitution Week Proclaimed In City

Canyon Mayor J. Manly Bryan has signed a proclamation naming next week as Constitution Week in the city.

The proclamation was prepared by the Esther McCrory Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Doris Martin of Canyon said the chapter will be placing posters in schools and businesses reminding locals of the week's observance. They are also urging local businessmen to fly American flags during the week.

The DAR sponsors Constitution Week annually, to remind citizens of the importance of the document to the country.

This year marks the 186th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution.

The Muledeer and Moondogg Medicine Show

Zany Nightclub Duo To Appear Here

Despite what you might gather from the name, The Muledeer & Moondogg MEDICINE SHOW is not in the business of selling snake oils, liniments or fake cures.

Rather it's primary business is to entertain — and the purveyors of the fun and frolic generated by the show are two young men named Gary Miller and Denny Flannigan.

These two comedians are appearing under auspices of the West Texas State University Student Activities Council Friday and Saturday on the Canyon campus.

At 8 p.m. Friday they will take over the Activities Center Snack-bar. At the same hour Saturday they perform in the East Dining Hall.

Admission price is $2 per person. Drinks are free.

It is a fair question to ask why in the world anyone would name their act "The Muledeer & Moondogg MEDICINE SHOW." But for Gary and Denny it all seemed perfectly natural.

Denny was born and raised in a remote section of Wyoming and Gary grew up in Spearfish, S.D., both areas where legend is rich in the exploits of the old medicine shows.

Gary, who is "Muledeer" in the act, became an expert tracker of South Dakota's and Wyoming's famous deer of the same name and in his early youth led groups of outdoor photography buffs in search of the elusive animal.

In Wyoming, as opposed to Los Angeles where he now lives, Denny was able to see the moon clearly each night and was notably affected when it was in its "moondogg" stage, that time when it appears to have rings around it.

Both comedians are writers and their act ranges from poking fun at current events, news and sports, to doing spot ads on "Jesus Christ Super Star," "Butterfly" and McDonald's.

The show contains skits, the liberal use of props or toys, and as one reviewer said: "Some of the funniest material, perfectly delivered, by two of the best comic talents seen since the early days of the Smothers Brothers."

position.

"We've planned for this baby for six years and now we're going to have it. Through my own experience, I can show women who come in here that family planning does work."

Mrs. Barnett says she also plans to be "living proof" that a woman can work and go to school throughout her pregnancy.

She says she will resume her education as well as her clinic work here after the birth of her child.

By pursuing a meaningful career, she said, "I think I can be a more effective mother."

Mrs. Barnett To Supervise Planned Parenthood Clinic

"I guess I'm a living example of Planned Parenthood," said Mrs. Susan Barnett, pretty blonde mother-to-be who assumed duties this week as Canyon outreach worker for the Panhandle Planned Parenthood Association.

Mrs. Barnett is the wife of J.D. Barnett, new assistant basketball coach at West Texas State University. After six years of marriage, the couple is expecting their first child in January.

A native of Minneapolis, Mrs. Barnett holds Bachelor of Arts and Master of Science degrees from Winona State College in Minnesota. The BA was awarded in the fields of sociology, psychology and social sciences. The MS was in applied psychology. She also attended Augsburg College at Minneapolis.

After graduation, Mrs. Barnett was an instructor in psychology on the junior college level in Virginia and at the Gilford Technical Institute at Highpoint, N.C.

She was also a counselor and instructor for two years at the Johnston-Willis Hospital School of Nursing at Richmond.

Mrs. Barnett is currently working toward Texas teaching and counseling certification at WTSU. She will be attending a training session for Planned Parenthood personnel scheduled Sept. 24 - 28 in Amarillo.

The 27-year-old expectant mother thinks her pregnancy has especial relevance to her new

St. Ann's Council Votes Yes On Sale Of Church Acreage

Members of the St. Ann's council, Vince Ehly, president, Ted Allen, vice president, Cecilia Tenorio, secretary, Dr. A. J. Laquette, Bud Hickman, Jim Palmer, Marie Kershen, Charles Acker, Cecil Charles, and Dorothy Szloski, met with Father Jack Gist at St. Ann's

Rectory for their monthly meeting.

After several special meetings of the council, they have elected to sell 11 acres of St. Ann's Church land to Mr. Herbert Friemel. The church will retain 4 acres, which the members felt was ample land to build a parish hall and education area in the near future.

Funds from the land sale will go to help some of the planned building as well as make some repairs that are needed for the exterior of the church.

A question and answer session with council members present will be held during Mass on Sept. 22, and during both Masses Sept. 23, to discuss with church members the land sale and planned parish hall.

St. Ann's Sunday School will begin this Sunday with the hours being 9:45-10:45 a.m. Grades 1-8 will meet at the old Newman Center, and grades 9-12 at the Rectory.

There will be 17 faculty teachers for Sunday School.

Canyon Community Concerts Now Signing New Members

The Eglevsky Ballet Ensemble

The fall membership drive for the Canyon Community Concerts Association is now underway in the city. Concert-goers are being offered a virtuoso pianist and a highly-acclaimed ballet ensemble as two of three CCC attractions this year.

This year's attractions include performances by highly-acclaimed pianist Thomas Schumacher, to appear Oct. 30, and premier danseur Andre Eglevsky and his six-member ensemble, to perform here on March 14. A third offering will be announced after the conclusion of the week-long membership drive. All performances are scheduled at the Canyon High School Auditorium.

The drive was formally initiated Sunday, with a dinner for campaign workers at the home of Dr. John Alpar of Amarillo, president of the CCC.

Membership dues are $10 for adults, $5 for students and $30 for families. There are no reserved seats at the concerts. Membership cards are also honored at Clovis, Lubbock, Borger, Hereford and other area community concert associations.

Persons may purchase memberships at Southwestern Public Service, 1608 Fifth Avenue. Membership headquarters will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, Sept. 11 to 14, and 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 15.

First on the bill of this year's season attractions will be pianist Thomas Schumacher in concert.

Described by the New York Times as "an enormous talent," Schumacher has been a featured performer with the New York Philharmonic and other important American symphony orchestras. A critically-acclaimed debut recital at Town Hall in 1963 launched the pianist's career, which has included international appearances in Poland, Japan and other countries.

Schumacher has been recipient of several important prizes in music, including the Busoni Competition in Bolzano, Italy, the Harold Bauer Award, the Morris Loeb Memorial Prize, the Frank Damrosch Scholarship, and the J.U.G.G. Award which led to his Town Hall debut. For the latter occasion, The New York Times critic appraised Schumacher's playing as "beautifully refined with 'tonal colors exhaustively employed.'"

When not touring, Schumacher is artist-in-residence at the University of Maryland. A familiar performer in the Washington concert world, Schumacher was described by a Washington Post critic as a "stunning artist" following his performances of 10 of Russian composer Alexander Scriabin's monumental sonatas.

In 1970, the artist also received accolades in the capitol for first performances with the National Symphony in Constitution Hall and for a recital which climaxed the annual Matthey Festival.

The recitalist was engaged in 1966 by the New York Philharmonic to perform the world premiere of David Diamond's new Piano Concerto. He has also appeared with the Atlanta Symphony, the Toronto Symphony and the Milwaukee Symphony.

In the spring of 1965, Schumacher made an extensive tour of Poland, where he performed with the prestigious Warsaw Philharmonic conducted by Josef Wilkomirski. In the autumn of the same year, Schumacher traveled to Japan for guest appearances with the Tokyo Philharmonic conducted by Yuzo Toyama, and a televised concert with the Yomiuri Nippon Orchestra.

A native of Butte, Montana, Schumacher received his training at the Manhattan and Juilliard Schools of Music, studying under Robert Goldsand, Beveridge Webster and Adele Marcus. He is currently completing work toward a doctorate at Juilliard.

The next Canyon Community Concert attraction will be a program of excerpts and scenes from great classical ballets in performance by the Eglevsky company.

Eglevsky earned international fame early in life. Born in Moscow, he began ballet studies under Maria Nevelska in Nice; Lubov Egorova, Mathilde Khesinska and Alexandre Volinine in Paris; Nicholas Legat in London, and much later at the School of American Ballet in New York.

At the age of 14, he was engaged by Col. de Basil's Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. Six months later he was dancing leading roles in "Swan Lake," Act II, "Les Sylphides," "Les Presages," and others. He has also performed engagements with such major companies as Rene Blum Ballet de Monte Carlo, Grand Ballet de Marquis de Cuevas, Ballet International, the American Ballet Theatre, and the New York City Ballet.

Andre Eglevsky

Eglevsky came to the U.S. as a permanent resident in 1937, and became an American citizen in 1939. During his years with the NYC Ballet, George Balanchine created and restaged numerous ballets designed to showcase Eglevsky's virtuosity, including "Caracole," "Scotch Symphony," "Pas de Dix" and revivals of "Pas de Trois" and "Swan Lake," Act II. He was assigned the leading role in a new Balanchine version of "The Nutcracker," but an injury prevented his dancing the Cavalier role the first season. He resigned from the company following its 1958 Australian and Oriental Tour.

In 1958, Eglevsky founded his own school and formed his present company. He also taught classes at the School of American Ballet directed by Balanchine.

His company, consisting of three ballerinas and their three male partners, has received high praise from critics throughout the country. After an Eglevsky ensemble performance, one New York Times critic said that "For a few moments while they were dancing, one knew with certainty that at that instant there could be no better dancing taking place anywhere else in the world."

Several other concerts will be available through reciprocity to Canyon association members. These include the following: Rudolf Firkusny, pianist, Oct. 4, Lubbock; New Hungarian Quartet, Oct. 16, Lubbock; Guy Lombardo & Orchestra, Oct. 15, Borger; Lee Evans Orchestra and Voice Group, Nov. 9, Clovis; Big Band Cavalcade, Dec. 15, Hereford; Carnival de Mexico, Jan. 30, Borger; The Incomparable Hildegard, Feb. 1, Clovis; The Canadian Opera Company "Cosi fan tutti" in English, Feb. 23, Lubbock; Marvelee Cariaga, mezzo-soprano, March 9, Clovis; Eglevsky Ballet Company, March 15, Lubbock; Longstreth and Escosa, harpists, April 2, Borger; Ted Alan Worth, organist, April 29, Clovis.

Hereford concerts are available to adult memberships only, a spokesman said.

Chili Smith To Retire

Charles W. "Chili" Smith, engineer of the Texas Highway Department district which includes Canyon, will retire Oct. 31, State Highway Engineer Luther DeBerry announced Saturday.

Smith will be succeeded by Alvie L. McKee, presently district maintenance engineer at Abilene.

Smith's retirement will close a 42-year career with the Highway Department, all of which was spent in the Panhandle region. After a variety of engineering assignments, Smith became assistant district engineer at Amarillo in 1945. In 1956 he became district engineer, in charge of construction, maintenance and operation of highways in Dallam, Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hartley, Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Gray, Deaf Smith, Randall and Armstrong Counties.

"Weather extremes pose special problems in Chili Smith's district," DeBerry said. "The high standards of construction, maintenance and availability to traffic of a balanced network of highways in the Panhandle attest to his ability as an engineer and an administrator."

McKee, who will become district engineer on Nov. 1, is a native of Faxon, Okla. He attended public schools in Potosi and Wylie, Texas and graduated with a degree in civil engineering from the University of Texas in 1950.

In the same year, he joined the Texas Highway Department in the Abilene district. He became district maintenance engineer in 1965. He and his wife, Frances, have two children, a son and a daughter.

CHS Choir Chosen To Appear At TMEA Meet In Houston

The Canyon High School Chorus under the direction of Tom Jennings has been selected as one of two choral ensembles in the state to perform at the prestigious Texas Music Educators' Association convention, slated Feb. 7-9 in Houston.

A surprised and elated Jennings said that the honor, one of the highest bestowed on any state high school choral group, came entirely unexpectedly last week.

The invitation for the TMEA appearance came after Jennings had relinquished the choir's candidacy for a European tour this year.

The CHS Choir, he said, was one of 20 in the Southwest invited to submit tapes to a panel of adjudicators for selection as the touring choir. Although the invitation was regarded as a high honor for the Canyon group, the expenditure involved in the European trip was too great for consideration, Jennings said.

About 6,000 music educators from all over Texas are expected to attend the annual TMEA meet. Of that number, Jennings said that 1500 are in the choral division of the organization.

The CHS Chorus was selected as this year's performing AAA Choir on the basis of its past performance record, as well as the numerous honors it has garnered in choral contests throughout the state.

The Canyon group has been a consistent first-division choir at University Interscholastic League competitions for the past five years. Twice in three years, the CHS Choir was named outstanding at the Greater Southwest Music Festival in Amarillo. The group also captured top honors at the Sea-A-Rama Choral Contest, held last year in Galveston.

Plans were underway this week for fund-raising activities to raise the money required to transport Jennings's 66-member choir to Houston in February.

After giving its stamp of approval for the Houston appearance at a recent meeting, the Canyon School Board voted to provide partial funding for the trip.

The rest of the money, Jennings said, will have to be raised by the choir.

Now on the boards are plans for another "pop bottle raid," a drive to collect donations of redeemable bottles from patrons. Last year, the group raised $700 in this manner, Jennings said.

A candy sale and two bake sales are also in the offing, and Jennings and his choir expect to earn $225 this fall by providing janitorial services at Frank Kimbrough Stadium after each of the three scheduled West Texas State University football games.

Jennings said that donations will also be sought at a CHS Chorus Concert, scheduled Feb. 5.

The CHS choir director was at work this week trying to choose musical selections for the Houston performance. Assisting him in the selection were Dr. George Umbersen, WTSU music department head, and Dr. Hugh Sanders, director of choral activities at WTSU.

Plans are to include each composition selected for the Houston appearance in one of three home concerts scheduled this fall. This will give local audiences the opportunity to hear the programmed works, and will provide valuable performance experience for the choir, Jennings said.

The choir will make its fall debut in a concert slated Oct. 29 in the CHS auditorium.

A Christmas concert is scheduled Dec. 14, and on Dec. 11, the Canyon choir will join with the choirs of Amarillo, Pampa and Palo Duro High Schools in performance of Vaughn Williams' "Donna Nobis Pacem."

Two CHS English Courses Reveal New Directions In Education Here

Mrs. Sammie Mantooh, instructor of two unique elective English classes at Canyon High School, likes to get a follow up on her former students.

Straight-A students who attended her developmental reading classes at Seminole High School have reported back to her after a year's matriculation in college, saying that her course was their mainstay in grueling freshman composition classes.

Recently, a former developmental reading student now working at a truck stop told Mrs. Mantooh that her class was invaluable to him in his work. "I

The Eagle Booster Club has asked that all persons planning to drive to the game in Borger meet at the high school parking lot between 5 and 5:15 p.m. Friday to form a caravan.

Game time is 7:30 p.m.

The booster club meets at 7 p.m. each Monday at the First National Bank to review highlights of the previous Friday night's Eagle outing. All persons are invited to become members of the club.

Jowell 4-H Club Has 1st Meeting

The Jowell 4-H Club held its first meeting last Friday, with election of officers being the order of business.

James Irlbeck was elected president; Kelly McRoberts, vice-president; Rocky McRoberts, treasurer and secretary; Bruce Hartman, reporter; Hilda Hartman, council delegate; and Janie Irlbeck, photographer.

Adult leaders are Mr. and Mrs. Gary McRoberts.

Special guests at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas and daughters, Amarillo, who gave a demonstration on electricity.

Two new members were present.

can jump up on those big trucks and get their speedometer readings really well," he told his former teacher.

Such is the diverse feedback the CHS instructor gets from former students in her developmental reading class, which she is now offering for the first time at CHS.

Mrs. Mantooh is also an instructor of another one-of-a-kind course which was designed by a Canyon educator with the needs of local students in mind.

Business English, described as a "survival class" in the use of the language, was developed last year by Mrs. Ruth Holladay, director of secondary curriculum in the Canyon schools.

Business English, among other things, teaches students the basic vocabularies of the banking, medical, retail selling and legal professions. The course also explores methods of writing in the business world, as well as ways to get maximum enjoyment and understanding from books, newspapers, movies, television programs and plays.

Research techniques are also studied in the class, with each student undertaking a project geared to his own needs and interests.

A vocational trades student enrolled in Business English might derive his research project from the mechanical work he's doing out in the parking lot, according to Mrs. Holladay.

Both the Developmental Reading Class and the Business English course reflect a new focus in Canyon public school education that coincides with the introduction of the quarter-system this fall.

Among the changes reverberating throughout the school system, those in the CHS English department have perhaps been the most dramatic. Students here are now required to take English in each quarter they are enrolled in high school. To make the continuous English educational meaningful, Canyon educators this year have devised a varied, college-like curriculum in which students may choose the kind of English class that suits them best. Choices range from Shakespeare to science fiction, and where students once got a smattering of many kinds of literature in standardized textbooks, they now may concentrate in particular areas relevant to their interests.

Mesdames Mantooh and Holladay are particularly enthusiastic about the new developmental reading class, which is designed to teach ways of reading more efficiently, meaningfully and enjoyably. The class, which seems to have equal appeal to college-bound students as well as those entering vocational trades, is one that Mrs. Mantooh said she wished was offered "back when I was going to school."

Students entering the class are administered a diagnostic test to evaluate their present reading ability. Speed ranks second to comprehension, Mrs. Mantooh said. From the test scores, Mrs. Mantooh is able to adapt course work to students' individual needs. Among specific problems the course is designed to remedy are those involving visual perception, comprehension, listening ability, concentration and command of the language.

Utilizing printed as well as programmed material, the course also is fashioned to instill appreciation and interest in reading, as well as develop reflective and critical thinking.

According to Mrs. Mantooh, the course aims at improving students' ability to effectively read all types of reading materials. Among other things, students are exposed to methods of reading quality literature, newspaper editorials, historical works and non-fictional accounts. Rudimentary logic methods are also taught, including ways to discern propagandizing techniques in writing.

One of the ultimate goals of developmental reading is to thoroughly integrate reading skills with all learning areas, Mrs. Mantooh said. Students enrolled in the classes find that their classroom experience in developmental reading carries over to all the subjects they are taking, she said.

Equally relevant to the needs of students in a modern world is the Business English class, which was introduced into the CHS curriculum last year.

After a long career in teaching, Mrs. Holladay said she learned that students seem to respond better to course work they believed would be of use to them in future careers. With that in mind, the Canyon educator created the Business English course, compiling the course workbook herself.

"This isn't a vocational English course," Mrs. Holladay emphasized. "It's designed to help a child survive in the business world and to be able to communicate with people in all areas of business."

In developing the course, Mrs. Holladay contacted several professional businessmen in Canyon and asked them to provide

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Clifton, Tulia, announce the birth of a daughter, Amber Renee, born Sept. 8, in Tulia, weighing 5 lbs. 1 oz. and measuring 16 inches in length.

Amber has one brother, Jason, age 3.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. David Clifton, Amarillo.

The new arrival has seven great grandparents and one great-great grandmother.

Students are introduced to ways of critically evaluating the film and print media, and are also exposed to drama. Mrs. Mantooh said she hoped to utilize the medium of reader's theatre in the section of the course devoted to play-reading.

Finally, the course provides training in proper research techniques in numerous fields of endeavor. Students are taught how "to find what they're looking for," whether it's in the American Historical Review, the Consumer's Guide, or the Quarterhorse Journal, Mrs. Holladay said.

The introduction of the two courses, as well as the many other new quarter English classes offered at CHS this year, marks the end of an era in public school English education here. Where students once were subjected to a standard fare of the classics, they now can shop around in the literary world in pursuit of the kind of training that suits them best.

Mr. and Mrs. Deon Drown, Amarillo, announce the birth of twin girls, Delyn Dacy weighing 5 lbs. 4 ozs. and measuring 17 inches in length, and Donyelle Dawn weighing 5 lbs. 10 ozs. and measuring 17 1/2 inches in length, born Sept. 9, at Neblett Memorial Hospital.
